

CAR AND CARRIAGE MUSEUM

In the Car and Carriage Museum, curious visitors and devoted automobile enthusiasts will take delight in the vintage vehicles — from Henry Clay Frick’s magnificent 1914 Rolls Royce Silver Ghost Touring Car to the glamorous and powerful 1909 Mercedes 45/50 Tourer. In the museum’s video theater, visitors will enjoy the fascinating film, Pittsburgh and the Automobile which alternates with short films about the Stanley Steamer and Pittsburgh automobile collector G. Whitney Snyder. This unique space is located just through the main entrance and iron gates brought from the Frick summer home in Eagle Rock, Massachusetts. For an additional fee, guests may enjoy access to the Car and Carriage Museum during your event.
