

VISITOR CENTER

In 1897, Henry Clay Frick built a two-story playhouse for his children comprising a playroom on the second floor and a bowling alley on the first floor. Today, the Visitor Center occupies the Playhouse and includes the Museum Shop, which offers a wide variety of wonderful treasures for family and friends. Our shop manager is happy to assist you with artistic favors to give as a lasting memory to your guests. Specialty blend Frick tea and tea accoutrements, books on wide-ranging subjects, hand-crafted jewelry, elegant stationery, and decorative pieces for the home are just some of the items available in the shop.
