

*Friendly booking + personalized attention + fascinating collections + small groups
+ cozy beautiful site = the best Girl Scout field trip you'll take!*

The Frick Art & Historical Center is a museum with multiple collections located on over five acres of lawns and gardens in Pittsburgh's East End. Whether your troop is working toward a petal, Try-It, badge, or interest project award, or if you are just looking for a fun and hands-on outing, we have a program for you.

Call today to register your troop for our 2011-2012 programs! Space is limited; programs fill quickly.
