The Frick Pittsburgh's Halloween-themed Events

From a costume tea to spooky stories, Frick visitors are invited to have fun this haunted holiday

Spooky Spirits Walk

Friday, Oct. 10 & 17, 6:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m.

Visitors are invited to get in the spooky spirit with a fall beverage while they explore the macabre, haunting history of Pittsburgh's East End on a guided walk of the Frick grounds. From the city's link to the "crime of the century" to the real life origins of the city's most enduring urban legends, discover the darker side of the East End.

Two tour times are available per date at 6:30 and 7:00 p.m. Attendees should register for one. The site walk will take approximately 90 minutes. The site walk takes place outdoors, rain or shine and the tour route is wheelchair accessible.

Two drink vouchers are included in the cost of the ticket. Visitors must be 21+ for alcoholic beverages. Non-alcoholic beverages are also available. Following the tour, each attendee will receive a sweet treat to take home. $45 members; $50 non-members; $25 students.

Visitors are encouraged to put their spooky knowledge to good use. Stories from Spooky Spirits will be featured as trivia questions for Trivia Night at the Frick on Oct. 24.

Tickets are available at:

- Oct. 17: thefrickpittsburgh.org/Event-Spooky-Spirits-Walk-Oct-17

Trivia Night at the Frick

Friday, Oct. 24, 5:45 p.m. to 8:00 p.m.

Visitors should grab a team and test their spooky season knowledge during a Halloween-themed trivia night at the Frick. Trivia will include four rounds of questions and prizes will be awarded for first, second and third place.

If visitors are looking for a leg up on the competition, they are encouraged to attend the Frick's annual Spooky Spirits Walk on Oct. 10 or Oct. 17 to hear stories that will be featured among the trivia questions.

Tickets must be purchased in advance. Reservations are for teams of 2-4 people. Teams can purchase their tickets individually or as a group. Teams will register their team name upon arrival at check-in. Cost of admission includes light snacks, a Halloween candy buffet and two drink tickets that can be redeemed for wine, beer, soda, bottled flat or sparkling water or a specialty mocktail. $30 members; $35 non-members. Tickets are available at:

Trick or Tea

Saturday, Oct. 25, reserved seatings at 11 a.m. & 1 p.m.

Reservations to go live on Thursday, Oct. 9

Visitors are invited to dress up in a costume and participate in a high tea this Halloween season. This family-friendly event will serve tea, hot chocolate, cider and other sweet and savory bites. No masks or weapons allowed for costumes. $45 per person + tax and 20 percent gratuity.

Registration opens to the public on Oct. 9. Spaces are limited. Reserve during normal business hours by calling 412-371-0600, Ext. 1.

Spooky Shrinky-Dink Drop-In

Saturday, Oct. 25, 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Ahead of Halloween, visitors are invited to come to the Frick in costume or their favorite seasonal sweater and make a craft. During this free drop-in program, all are welcome to create their own shrinky-dink keychain creatures and play lawn games. All children must be accompanied by an adult.

This drop-in program is an ideal companion to Trick or Tea in the Frick Café.

About The Frick Pittsburgh

Since 1990, The Frick Pittsburgh has welcomed visitors to its 10-acre cultural campus in the heart of Pittsburgh's East End. Gifted to the people of Pittsburgh by Helen Clay Frick, daughter of noted industrialist and art collector Henry Clay Frick, the campus is home to Clayton, the family's Gilded Age mansion, now listed on the National Register of Historic Places. The Gilded, Not Golden tour of Clayton was honored with a 2024 Leadership in History Award from the American Association for State and Local History.

The campus also includes The Frick Art Museum, the Car and Carriage Museum, a greenhouse, gardens, and welcoming café. Through its permanent collections, traveling exhibitions, historic tours, and public programs, the Frick invites all visitors to experience history and art, reframed for today.
