

DIGITAL LEARNING EXPERIENCES

with The Frick Pittsburgh

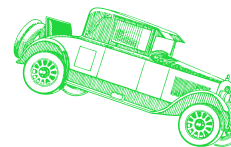

REAL ART. REAL HISTORY. REAL LEARNING. ALL ONLINE.

The Frick Pittsburgh believes in creating meaningful, engaging digital learning programs for students K-12. Our digital learning experiences bring the Frick's collections straight to you and your students—wherever you are.

What You Need to Know

- Frick educators facilitate all digital learning experiences live via Zoom. If your school is not able to use Zoom, please let us know when you request your program.
- Digital learning experiences are available Monday through Friday. The earliest time a program can begin is 9:30 a.m.
- All programs are scheduled on a first-come, first-served basis. To verify that you are officially booked, please check your inbox for a confirmation email from our reservation system.
- Students can participate as a group from the classroom or individually from their own computers at home. If participating as a group from the classroom, it is preferable to use a large screen or projector, a microphone and speakers.
- At least one teacher must be present for all digital learning experiences.
- For the remainder of 2020, all digital learning experiences are free of charge.

Please note that these enrichment components are not facilitated by a Frick educator, but are designed to be completed after the live program is over. When you have booked your program, a link will be sent to you containing all applicable instructions, activity pages, and materials lists.
