Girl Scout Programs

at The Frick
Pittsburgh

The Frick Pittsburgh is a museum with multiple collections located on nearly six acres of lawns and gardens in Pittsburgh's East End. Collections include:

- The Frick Art Museum, which displays a permanent collection of art belonging to the Frick family, along with an array of diverse temporary exhibitions.
- The Car and Carriage Museum, which illustrates the history of transportation from carriages to the early automobile.
- Clayton, the remarkably preserved historic home of Henry Clay Frick and his family.
- The historic Greenhouse, which is still operational and accompanied by several acres of manicured grounds with arboretum status.

General Information:

- All programs require an eight scout minimum charge. For every four scouts, one chaperone is admitted free.
- The earliest time programs begin is at 9:30 a.m. Available start times vary by program.
- All scout programs are available year-round on Saturdays and Sundays only, unless otherwise noted.
- Payment in full is due on the day of your visit.
- Frick patches are available for the discounted rate of $3 per scout with a confirmed reservation. Pre-order is required. Please indicate at the time of booking if you would like to order patches.
- Cancellation policy: 24-hour notice is required if your troop is unable to attend your scheduled program.
- Contact us! Call 412-342-4087 or email Education@TheFrickPittsburgh.org to reserve your program. Space is limited and programs fill quickly, so we recommend contacting us at least two months before your preferred date.

Second Saturdays

Younger scouts can participate in our Second Saturday Studios to create a special take-home activity, which changes monthly. Includes a tour of either The Frick Art Museum or the Car and Carriage Museum. Visit the Frick's website for information about the monthly art project.

Fee: $5 per scout

Duration: 1 hour

Scout Level: Daisy, Brownie

Available the second Saturday of each month

A Peek at the Past

As they tour Clayton and the Greenhouse, scouts discover what it was like to live in Pittsburgh over 100 years ago. Round out your visit with one of the following activities:

- Parlor games
- Hoop rolling (weather permitting)
- History Mystery Game: Work together and use clues to identify mystery objects from the past

Fee: $7 per scout

Duration: 2 hours

Scout Level: Daisy, Brownie, Junior

Letterboxing

Try your hand at 19th-century geocaching during a Girl Scout Letterboxing Day! Make an ink stamp and learn to use a compass, then work as a team to find hidden letterboxes.

Fee: $8 per scout

Duration: 2 ½ hours

Scout Level: Junior, Cadette, Senior

Available on October 20, 2018 and April 27, 2019

Express Yourself: Studio Arts

Choose your media (drawing, painting, or collage) and get creative! Includes a guided tour of The Frick Art Museum, followed by a hands-on art making workshop.

Fee: $8 per scout

Duration: 2 hours

Scout Level: All scout levels

Christmas at Clayton

Get into the holiday spirit with a visit to the Frick! Scouts are invited to enjoy this special after-school Christmas tour of Clayton.

Fee: $7 per scout

Duration: 1 hour

Scout Level: All scout levels

Available Friday evenings in December

Mix and Match

Customize a scout program that fits the goals of your troop! Choose two of the Frick's collections to tour (Clayton, The Frick Art Museum, the Car and Carriage Museum, or the Greenhouse). Round out your visit by adding an optional hands-on project. Just give us a call to discuss tour and project options.

Fee: $8 per scout

Duration: Up to 2 ½ hours

Scout Level: All scout levels
